

CAARP Training Program for Professionals and Entrepreneurs

--

Fish for Protein and Profits

Day	Morning session (0900 – 1200 hrs)	Lunch break	Afternoon session (1300 - 1600 hrs)
Day0	Arrival and check-in CARP Guest House Registration starts from 1600 hrs
Day1	0800: Registration continued 0900: Welcome/Introduction - Prof Madhav Shrestha Lect1: Why fish and fish farming? Dr Ram Bhujel	Welcome Lunch	Workshop / Group Work 1: Participants to talk about what they have and what plan to do. Group – plan
Day2	Field trip – Visit some fish ponds around (Small-ponds of Tharu community and also commercial farms)
Day3	Lect 2 – Planning a fish farms – nursing and grow-out of Carps, Pangasius/catfish, and Tilapia - By RN Mishra / JD Bista	Lunch	Workshop / Group Work 2: Participants to plan based on their facilities
Day4	Lect3: Nutrition and Feeding Management - Theory and Practice- Dr Ram Bhujel	"	Workshop / Group Work 3: Feed formulation, feed making and feeding
Day5	Lect4: Water quality management - Prof Madhav Shrestha	"	Workshop / Group Work 4: Participants to measure DO, Temp, pH, and take sample and analyse NH ₃ & NO ₂ using test kits
Day6	Lect5. Fish health management: Diseases and Parasites - Dr Narayan Pandit / Arun Baidya?	"	Workshop / Group Work 5: Participants to dissect fish, and observe various tissues under microscope and identify some parasites
Day7	Fish marketing – Fish harvesting, post harvest handling, processing, storage and cooking – Rabindra Bataju	"	Each participant presents a business plan to discuss Wrap up by Prof Madhav Shrestha / Certificate Award Ceremony & Farewell lunch

Notes: Lunch and dinner will be at CAARP Restaurant; a welcome lunch on Day 1 will be in a restaurant in Sauraha and Tharu Dance and interested persons can also book for Jungle Safari afterwards (by Kiran Amatya)